

Count Me In

Fall Sessions for Students in Eighth Grade

Receive vocal coaching to prepare for your high school auditions.

Join us for a four-week series of audition workshops this fall. These workshops are for students committed to attending all eight afterschool sessions and auditioning for performing arts high schools.

- Sessions are free and take place in your neighborhood.
- Learn three audition songs.
- Learn the basics of sight-singing and rhythm reading.
- Participate in a mock audition with local high school choral directors.
- Perform in a culminating master class and recital for your friends and family.
- Earn a Count Me In certification for your resume.
- Transportation assistance is provided.

Students who participated in Count Me In last year were accepted to Brooklyn High School of the Arts, Celia Cruz Bronx High School of Music, LaGuardia High School, Fordham High School for the Arts, Forest Hills High School, Frank Sinatra School of the Arts, and more.

Please detach and return this portion to your school to register for this fall.
Forms are due to your guidance counselor no later than Wednesday, September 17, 2014.

Turn over for workshop details.
